WOV Retreat 2018 FAQ

Who:

The Women of Valor Retreat is designed to be a weekend for spiritual growth and fellowship with sisters in Christ (age 15+; mothers with infants under one year of age may bring the child, though we can only allow up to 4 infants at the retreat).

What:

This year, we will do a study of valor itself. Be prepared to study deep into God's word! But, don't worry – there will be plenty of time to just socialize and get to know one another better.

When:

Thursday, March 22, 2018 (check-in begins at 5:00pm with dinner at 6:00) through Saturday, March 24, 2018 (we'll leave after lunch).

Where:

Camp Ida, located in Maud, TX (50 Co Rd 1207).

Why:

To exhort each other, to help in our personal study of the Bible, to equip us to better serve in God's kingdom, to make lifelong connections.... The list goes on and on!

How:

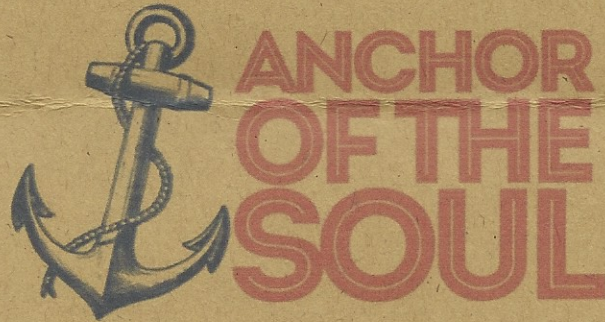

Simply turn in the registration form with your registration fee. The fee for the entire weekend is $70 and includes all meals, lodging, a retreat t-shirt, and a notebook of the speakers' notes.

Contact us with questions!

Things to Bring:

- Your Bible
- Modest clothing (the weekend is casual, so jeans and capris are appropriate. No shorts please. Jackets are advisable)
- Toiletries
- Bedding for a twin size bed (pillow, sheets / sleeping bag)
- A tumbler / water bottle
- A bag to stash your notebook, Bible, and other things in
- Flashlights
- Umbrella (you never know!)
- Any games you might like to play during free time
- Note cards / sheets to write encouragement notes to others
- A snack to share for the "Snack Table" in the mess hall ☺ (please make sure snacks do not have to be refrigerated and are in a closable container)

*You are cordially invited to attend a
Ladies' Day
