Dear Brethren:

We send you warm greetings from the Memphis School of Preaching, on a cold day in Memphis. There is definitely a chill sweeping across the nation right now, but, as the song says, "There is sunshine in my soul today." This sunshine is provided by the Son, because of what He has done for us (Luke 19:10). There is nothing more heart-warming than the saving message of the Gospel, and the hope of a home in heaven (Col. 1:5; 1 Pet. 1:3-4)!

Our hearts are also warmed by giving people like you, who enable us to train men and send them forth to show the world "that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God," and to show them how to have "life through His name" (John 20:30-31). It is no exaggeration to say that your generosity is connected to the soul-saving efforts of our students, past, present and future!

May God richly bless you for helping us to magnify the name of the Saviour! Speaking of magnifying His name, our annual lectureship is devoted to the theme: "Magnify His Name." In our letter last month, we wrote that our plans were to carry on with the lectureship at the normally scheduled time at the end of March. However, since that time, as we have considered the potential impact of COVID-19 on our plans, we have decided to move this year's lectureship to May 23-27, 2021. We felt like this additional 8 weeks of time would afford some extra time for those who wish to get vaccinations to do so. The weather will also be warmer then, and we will have two more months to develop some degree of immunity against the virus.

We are thrilled that all of our speakers, originally scheduled for the March lectureship, are able to commit to coming during the week of May 23-27, 2021, except for one speaker, and he will record his message so others can benefit also from it. The schedule is enclosed. We would love to have you with us in May!

Thank you again for the warmth you bring to our spiritual hearts!

His servant and yours,

B. J. Clarke
Director

Scripture Reading: Ruth 3:1-5; 4:13-17

THOUGHT: Hardening of the attitudes is the most deadly disease on the face of the earth. —Zig Ziglar

Do you remember the last time you caught a flight for a vacation or to visit a family member? If you do, you will also remember that shortly after the plane pushed back from the gate, the flight attendant began to give her in-flight safety instructions. You were reminded that you were on a non-smoking flight and that smoking in the restrooms or tampering with the smoke detectors was strictly forbidden.

You were also told that when the captain turned on the "Fasten seat belt" sign, you were to remain in your seat and tighten the belt around your waist.

Finally, she demonstrated the use of the oxygen mask. The little yellow cup will fall magically from the overhead compartment, and after securing it around your face, she said. Oxygen will flow through the little bag, even if it does not appear to inflate.

What I find interesting about these instructions is that she always reminds the passengers that if they are traveling with someone who needs assistance, they should first put on their own masks before attempting to help someone else with theirs.

This is so true in life. I need to have spiritual oxygen of my own before I can give life-sustaining and enabling help to others. (Consider II Timoth 2:1,2; 2:15)

This is one of the reasons I go to Bible classes and worship each week: to get a fresh dose of spiritual oxygen. I want to be sure I do not violate God's instructions found in Hebrews 10:23-25: Let us hold fast the confession of our hope without wavering, for He who promised is faithful; and let us consider how to stimulate one another to love and good deeds, not forsaking our own assembling together, as is the habit of some, but encouraging one another; and all the more, as you see the day drawing near.

I also read the Bible every day: to get more life giving oxygen from God's Holy Word. I must take in, I must breathe in, the life-sustaining power of God's Spirit before I am any good to those around me. Indeed, if I do not have enough spiritual oxygen, I may do more harm than good to those in my life including my family and work associates.

Prayer thought:

Oh, Holy Father, thank you for being ever so close to me in my daily needs. Help me to be so prepared with your love that I then may be able to assist others in their daily needs. Energize me with your power, so that I may be able to guide others in their spiritual walk as You do for me. Thank you Lord for guiding me along life's spiritual journey!

In the name of Jesus Christ I pray, Amen
